I have spent over two decades serving the Tehama County area. I worked for the Red Bluff Fire Department for 20 years and have worked in EMS with Dignity Health for the past 12 years.

I moved from Sacramento to Paynes Creek at a young age and grew up in Tehama County. I currently serve on the City of Red Bluff Planning Commission and value practical, responsible local decision-making.

I have always been involved in the community. I served as President of Red Bluff Little League, coached many youth sports teams, and volunteered many hours with Speical Olympics, United Way and other local organizations.

I am raising my family in Tehama County and take pride in being part of this community. Living and working here has shaped my values, and I am committed to serving the people of Tehama County.
