9:00 AM CALL TO ORDER / PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

PUBLIC COMMENT

Scott Camp led a prayer and discussed the County budget.

Michael Kain said Mr. Hydrick works for the Board and you need to listed to your constituents.

A member of the public spoke about the Veterans Halls and hiring employees to do the jobs already being done by volunteers.

Morae Arthur spoke about the rescue crews that were working to save the unhoused living in the slough.

Louise Wilkinson said she was appalled by the way the last meeting went. She also questioned the $635,000 taken from the roads to cover the Groundwater Sustainability Act.

John Prinz displayed a book about opium and spoke about the benefits of cannabis.

Kathy Nelson said the proposed half cent sales tax is to cover the money the Board took for the Groundwater Sustainability Act.

Liz Merry spoke about the Tehama County Superior Court website not being active.

Martin Spannus spoke about the Groundwater Sustainability Act fee and invited the Board to attend the Farm Bureau and Cattlemen's meetings.

Supervisor Carlson said there was a misunderstanding regarding what was happening with the Budget and the prior Veteran's Advisory committee, as the intent was to add money to the Veteran Halls' budgets.

A member of the public said he would like to address where the Board sees a problem with the operations of the Veteran Halls.

a) Approval and authorization to change the Veterans Halls Ad Hoc Committee to a Standing Committee and change the name to Veterans Halls Advisory Committee

Clark Sillman said he thought in July it was agreed to add managers to the ad hoc. He added he doesn't see where having a committee will be beneficial and said things get turned into the County and nothing gets done.

Supervisor Moule stated we are pleased with the management of the halls.

Supervisor Carlson said the Board does not know what is brought forward to the staff and it is not acceptable to not have items fixed.

Tom Epperson said he has always been told if there is a problem to bring it to staff's attention. He added we do, and nothing has been done. He asked the Board to keep the halls maintained so it doesn't get to where the Corning Vets Hall is.

Kathy Nelson stated the Board always wants to take control over everything and added the vets are doing a good job.

Louise Wilkinson said the vets need to be on the committee with the supervisors.

Administrative Analyst Tom Provine added there are items that need to be repaired. Mr. Provine added if they are small facilities maintenance can fix them, but large projects have been presented to the rescue act committee and a few have been given approval to move forward.

Administrative Services Director Dava Kohlman stated an agreement would be coming forward for approval.

Supervisor Carlson stated she wants to keep the vets' hall a top priority.

Liz Merry suggested a standing committee to allow greater attendance.

A veteran said the meeting in July 2023 was a joke. He stated no one was happy with the ad hoc and we expect better of our representatives. He added, the veterans think Tom and Dava are being honest about the processes and procedures, however the problem is with the politicians they need to do what is needed.

Robert Mitchell asked the Board to listen and act upon what they hear.

Robert Burroughs said he assists in maintaining seven different facilities and asked to be a member of the committee.

Supervisor Hansen thanked everyone and said the committee is about communication and suggested the committee include a staff member.

22. BOARD OF SUPERVISORS / STRATEGIC PLAN / RETREAT 24-108

- a) Discussion and possible further direction to staff, if necessary, on completion of the County's 2024 Strategic Plan.

Chief Administrator Gabriel Hydrick reviewed other county strategic plans, the list from the 2022 workshop and went through the initiatives. Mr. Hydrick then presented and reviewed the 2024 plan.

- b) Hold Board of Supervisors Retreat to discuss goals, objectives and priorities of the Board members.

Supervisor Carlson said it needs work, that is why she wanted a Board Retreat.

Supervisor Carlson made a motion to hold a Board Retreat off site, in person only at Ridgeway Park if it is noticed appropriately.

Discussion took place regarding inviting potential supervisor elects.

Mr. Hydrick added the presented plan would change based on the retreat.

An amendment was made to hold the retreat off site on 3/12 and inviting supervisor elects and allowing staff to determine a location.
