

TITLE: CHILD SUPPORT SPECIALIST I/II/III

FLSA: Non-Exempt

BOARD APPROVED:

BARGAINING UNIT: Misc.

DEFINITION

Performs a wide variety of child support duties consisting of maintaining a caseload, locating and interviewing custodial and non-custodial parents and others to elicit factual information for the purpose of establishing child support obligations and enforcing child support laws; arranges for support payments when possible; prepares cases for court hearings as necessary; and performs related work as required.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives supervision from the Child Support Supervisor. In the absence of the Child Support Supervisor, may receive limited supervision from the Child Support Specialist IV.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

Positions in this classification series are flexibly staffed. This is a multi-level professional classification series in which incumbents may be assigned to either of the three (3) levels, depending upon experience, proficiency gained, and the complexity of assigned functions. Progression to a higher level will be a criteria-based promotion. When work duties have been mastered, sound work habits and excellent conduct demonstrated, and other requirements met such as performance standards, an incumbent may be promoted by the department to the next level in the series.

Child Support Specialist I: Working under close supervision, the Child Support Specialist I is the entry/trainee level in the Child Support Specialist series. Employees in this class receive in-depth training, and are given detailed instructions in the performance of duties related to child support laws, regulations, and a broad range of child support casework activities. This classification is provided close oversight. As requisite skills and knowledge are developed, greater independence and the full scope of responsibility are exercised.

Child Support Specialist II: Working under general supervision, the Child Support Specialist II is the journey level in the Child Support Specialist series. Employees at this level are expected to perform a broad range of child support casework from intake to establishment, enforcement, and case closure. Within legal requirements and departmental policies and procedures, incumbents operate with independence and must exercise discretion and judgment in evaluating cases and determining the level of support and the methods of enforcement. The Child Support Specialist II differs from the higher class of Child Support Specialist III in that the latter is the advanced journey level

Child Support Specialist III: Working under limited supervision, the Child Support Specialist III is the advanced-journey level in the Child Support Specialist series. Incumbents may provide training to lower-level Child Support Specialists, may participate in special projects, and may exercise detailed subject matter knowledge of a specific program area or specialized system inherent to the operations of the department. Positions in this class differ from those in the class of Child Support Specialist II by the knowledge of policies & procedures affiliated with case management resulting in the ability to accomplish work independently and accurately, service as a Subject Matter Expert, and assignment of complex, sensitive or confidential cases requiring advanced technical skills. The Child Support Specialist III may provide lead worker assistance in the absence of the Child Support Specialist IV. The Child Support Specialist III differs from the next higher class of Child Support Specialist IV in that the latter serves as a lead worker of a unit of Child Support Specialists and may perform limited supervision in the absence of the Child Support Supervisor.
